Bulletin 1 March 11th, 2003

The Organiser of the European Championships for F1D in 2003 is the Deutsche Aero Club e.V. with its subsidiary body, the Model Flying Commission and its department, the Free Flight Organization. The Regional Air Sports Organisation of the county of Brandenburg will support the organiser.

The Flying Site will be the CargoLifter hangar at Brand, south of Berlin. The site and hangar will be open from October 2nd at 3.00 PM until October 5th at 10.00 PM. During this time, the European F1D Championships for seniors and juniors will take place as well as an Open International Indoor Competition for F1D, F1L and F1M classes. Because of ongoing negotiations with a new owner uncertainty about the date and the competitions is still remaining. There may be some production activity, despite the long weekend (October 3rd is a national holiday in Germany).

The Contest Director will be Gerhard Wöbbeking, assisted by Thomas Weimer, who will be heading the timekeepers' pool.

The FAI-Jury (and the Jury for the Open International) will consist of Pierre Chaussebourg (CIAM Vice President, FRA), Michael Ramel (Alternate CIAM Delegate GER) and Mike Colling (GBR). Reserve Luca Gialanella (ITA).

Eligibility for the European Championships. This is open to teams from the National Aero Clubs of Europe, including Turkey and Israel. All participants in the Open International must have a current FAI licence.

The Juniors Competition will take place at the same time as the senior event.

Entries for teams and timekeepers for the European Championships may be made until July 31st 2003. Entries should be sent to Michael Thoma, Deutscher Aero Club e.V. Hermann-Blenk-Str. 28, 38108 Braunschweig, Germany. Tel. 0049-531-2354056, Fax 0049-531-2354011, e-mail m.thoma@daec.de.

Entry fees shall be paid on spot. Only cash € will be accepted.

Entries for the Open International F1D, F1 L, and F1M may be made until September 20th.

The Official Languages for these contests are English and German.

For juniors up to 18 years - 170 € (255 Swiss Francs).

For supporters (seniors) - 30 € (45 Swiss Francs).

For junior supporters up to 18 years - 20 € (30 Swiss Francs)

For competitors in the Open Internationals (seniors) - 40 € for the first class, each other class 20 €.

For juniors up to 18 years - 30 € for the first class, each other class 15 € extra.

Banquet. 20 € for adults, 10 € for children under 14.

Timekeepers will get 144 € to cover board & lodging. Every National Team is free to nominate one timekeeper. The organisers will not provide any timekeepers for the Open International.

Processing of flying. European Championships competitors will collect two timekeepers from the pool. After each flight, if the timed duration is longer than one of that competitors previous best two flights, the model and rubber motor must be checked. Participants of the Open International will also follow this scheme. Their launching area will be separated.
